CALL FOR PAPERS

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES & NOTICE OF DECISIONS

The Center for Corporate Reporting & Governance (CCRG) is seeking academic papers for the Haskell & White academic conference. Papers are invited in the areas of accounting, finance, and economics (including, but not limited to, the topics of Auditing, Financial Accounting & Reporting, International Accounting, Corporate Governance, and Ethics). Submissions should be received by Monday, July 9, 2018. All manuscripts are subject to a blind review process. Email notification of the outcome of each submission will be sent to the corresponding author or authors in early August.

Each paper submission should include a title page listing the corresponding author's name and email address. All papers must be in Word or PDF format and emailed to: ccrg@fullerton.edu.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Haskell & White Corporate Reporting & Governance Conference is intended to provide opportunities for academics to engage with experienced researchers and network with the practicing community. We especially encourage current and recently graduated PhDs to submit papers.

The CCRG will host the academic conference on September 20, 2018 followed by the 17th Annual SEC "Hot Topics" Conference on September 21, 2018. The SEC Conference is attended by over 500 professionals from Southern California. Academics are invited to attend both events at the Hotel Irvine in Irvine, California.

The conference registration fees are $ 225 for academics and $ 400 for professionals. The fee covers reception on Thursday, September 20, as well as continental breakfast and lunch on Friday, September 21. Fees are waived for doctoral students.

ABOUT THE CENTER FOR CORPORATE REPORTING & GOVERNANCE

The Center for Corporate Reporting & Governance (CCRG) at the Steven G. Mihaylo College of Business & Economics at California State University, Fullerton was created in the wake of Enron and other high profile corporate scandals, as well as the subsequent passage of the landmark Sarbanes-Oxley Act to address the issues facing businesses and auditors in today's changing financial environment. The CCRG's 17th Annual SEC "Hot Topics" Conference features a wide variety of speakers, including SEC, FASB, and PCAOB officials, financial accounting experts, board and audit committee members, as well as prominent corporate executives.
