

The Bedford Report Future Accounting Education: Preparing For The Expanding Profession

Part III: The Future Scope, Content, and Structure of Accounting Education

Summary

The Committee's analysis of accounting practice has indicated that accounting education as it is currently approached requires major adjustments between now and the year 2000. The recommendations contained in this report are intended to serve as broad guidelines and to provide some direction for those who initiate changes in accounting education. Expanding responsibilities for those in the profession provide, in turn, expanding opportunities for accounting educators.
