5. AAA policy does not allow presenters to explicitly market (through displays or distribution of promotional materials, etc.) commercial products in which they have a financial interest. If you plan to include products or services in your poster presentation that may fall into this category, please provide the names of those products/services here and a rationale for their inclusion in your poster presentation.

PROPOSAL FOR POSTER SESSION

(Note: All or part of the information you provide will appear on the Annual Meeting web site to describe your session and in promotional materials for the meeting)

6. Detailed Description – In 200 words or less, describe the session’s focus including the key issues and concepts that will be addressed. Include learning outcomes – What will participants learn from your session? (Limit: 200 words)

7. Promotional Description – In 40 words or less, “sell” your session to a prospective attendee. What is the essence of the poster session? What will the audience learn? This is your chance to market your session, so try to make the description appealing, but not misleading. (Limit: 40 words)

Review of proposals: Peer review of submissions will be completed in April and notifications sent on or before May 1, 2003.
