

CHARLES E. STAHL, III

1840 Waverly, Trenton, MI 48183

Phone: (734) 676-7645

Email: cstahl@madonna.edu

Professional Licenses:

Attorney at Law, Michigan (1984, P36345)

Certified Public Accountant, Michigan (1978, 10279)

Education:

L.L.M.-Taxation, Wayne State University, December, 1991

Juris Doctor (cum laude), Detroit College of Law at Michigan State University, January, 1984

M.S. Management-Financial Control, Krannert Graduate School of Management, Purdue University, May, 1975

B.S. Engineering-Engineering Management, Purdue University, August, 1975

B.S.-Mathematics, Eastern Michigan University, December, 1972

Work Experience:

Madonna University, September, 1991 to Present

Professor of Taxation, School of Business

Chair, Department of Accounting and Finance, 1991 to 1996

Co-Director, MSBA Medical and Dental Practice Administration

Executive Fellows Program, 1992 to 1994

Taught for two years in Shanghai, China: graduate courses were International Finance, WTO Issues, Managerial Accounting, International Trade and Investment and Business Ethics besides my normal teaching load on-campus

Other Work Experience:

Teaching: University of Windsor (Canada), University of Detroit, Eastern Michigan University and Purdue University

Bodman, Longley & Dahling-Associate Attorney, Detroit Michigan

BASF Wyandotte Chemical Corporation-Contract Administrator, Wyandotte, MI

Coopers & Lybrand-Consultant & Auditor, Detroit, Michigan

Areas of Interest:

Teaching: All areas of taxation, accounting and business law especially corporate taxation and consolidated financial statements (advanced accounting)

Scholarly Activities:

Financial Statement Analysis presentation to over 100 bank managers in Shanghai, China PRC

International Finance and WTO Issues class notes with translation

C. Stahl, The Integration Of International Law Topics Into A First Semester

Undergraduate Business Law Course, paper presented at MBAA Chicago, IL

C. Stahl & S. Arends, The Development of a Medical and Dental Practice Executive Fellows Program: Some Reflections, presented at MBAA, Chicago, IL

References:

References and additional information will be provided upon request

Desired Availability: September, 2004.