

William R. Koprowski is Chair of Accounting and Legal Studies at the College of Charleston. Bill received his Ph.D. from Temple University and his J.D. from the University of South Carolina. He is a CMA, CIA and a Fellow of both the Healthcare Financial Management Association and the American College of Healthcare Executives. His research interests include health care accounting and law.