

Hua-Wei Solomon Huang
Accounting Phd Student
School of Accounting
College of Business Administration
Florida International University
Email: hhuan002@fiu.edu, hwawei7@yahoo.com.tw

EDUCATION

M.Acc, Chinese Culture University
B.S., Accounting, National Cheng Kung University

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Hua-Wei Solomon Huang is a Certified Public Accountant in Taiwan, R.O.C. He was previously a senior auditor at PriceWaterhouseCoopers (Tainan). Huang has more than a hundred firms auditing experience, specializing in consolidated financial statement analysis and preparation. From 1999 to 2001, he audited the subsidiaries of MNC Uni-President Enterprise and TYG Group at seven different cities in Mainland China.

Before joining in FIU PHD program, he served as a lecturer at Finance Department, Diwan College of Management, Taiwan. Huang taught financial accounting, financial statement analysis courses and set the official accounting policy for Diwan College of Management. Huang's research interests spanned audit fees, conservatism, auditor changes, financial reporting and corporate governance. He also got the certificate in multi-variables analysis program from National Cheng Kung University, Taiwan, R.O.C. His master thesis discusses about analysis of determinants of post-merger operating performance - Taiwan listed companies. He has presented several papers at IACIS Conference, Center for Corporate Reporting & Governance at California State University, Fullerton and Niagara University Accounting Conference. Recently, he just has an auditor litigation paper accepted by American Accounting Association Mid-West Regional Conference in Chicago.