

Mary Thomas Keim is an Assistant Professor of Accounting at California State University - San Marcos. Her teaching interests include Financial Accounting and Auditing. Her research interests are in higher education and in auditing areas, including corporate governance. She has published in both ethics and corporate governance, including a teaching case in ethics in Issues in Accounting Education.