

Learn and Lead – FEI Professional Development Opportunities

Financial Executives International (FEI) has developed a series of professional development courses for financial executives, FEI members and nonmembers alike. Through continuing professional education (CPE) credit opportunities, multi-city in-person courses and conferences, and on-demand learning—FEI helps you to increase your skill set. You can advance your anti-fraud skills, develop SEC Reporting and filing expertise, better understand the accounting roadmap as it relates to liabilities and equity, and strengthen your financial leadership and decision making amid complexity. Through the on-demand learning opportunities, you can get your COSCO internal control certificate as well as advance your leadership skills with the Leadership Master Class and training on StoryPathing can help you to take charge of your life and your career.
