Blockchain Technology: An Emerging Issues Forum

Friday September 14, 2018

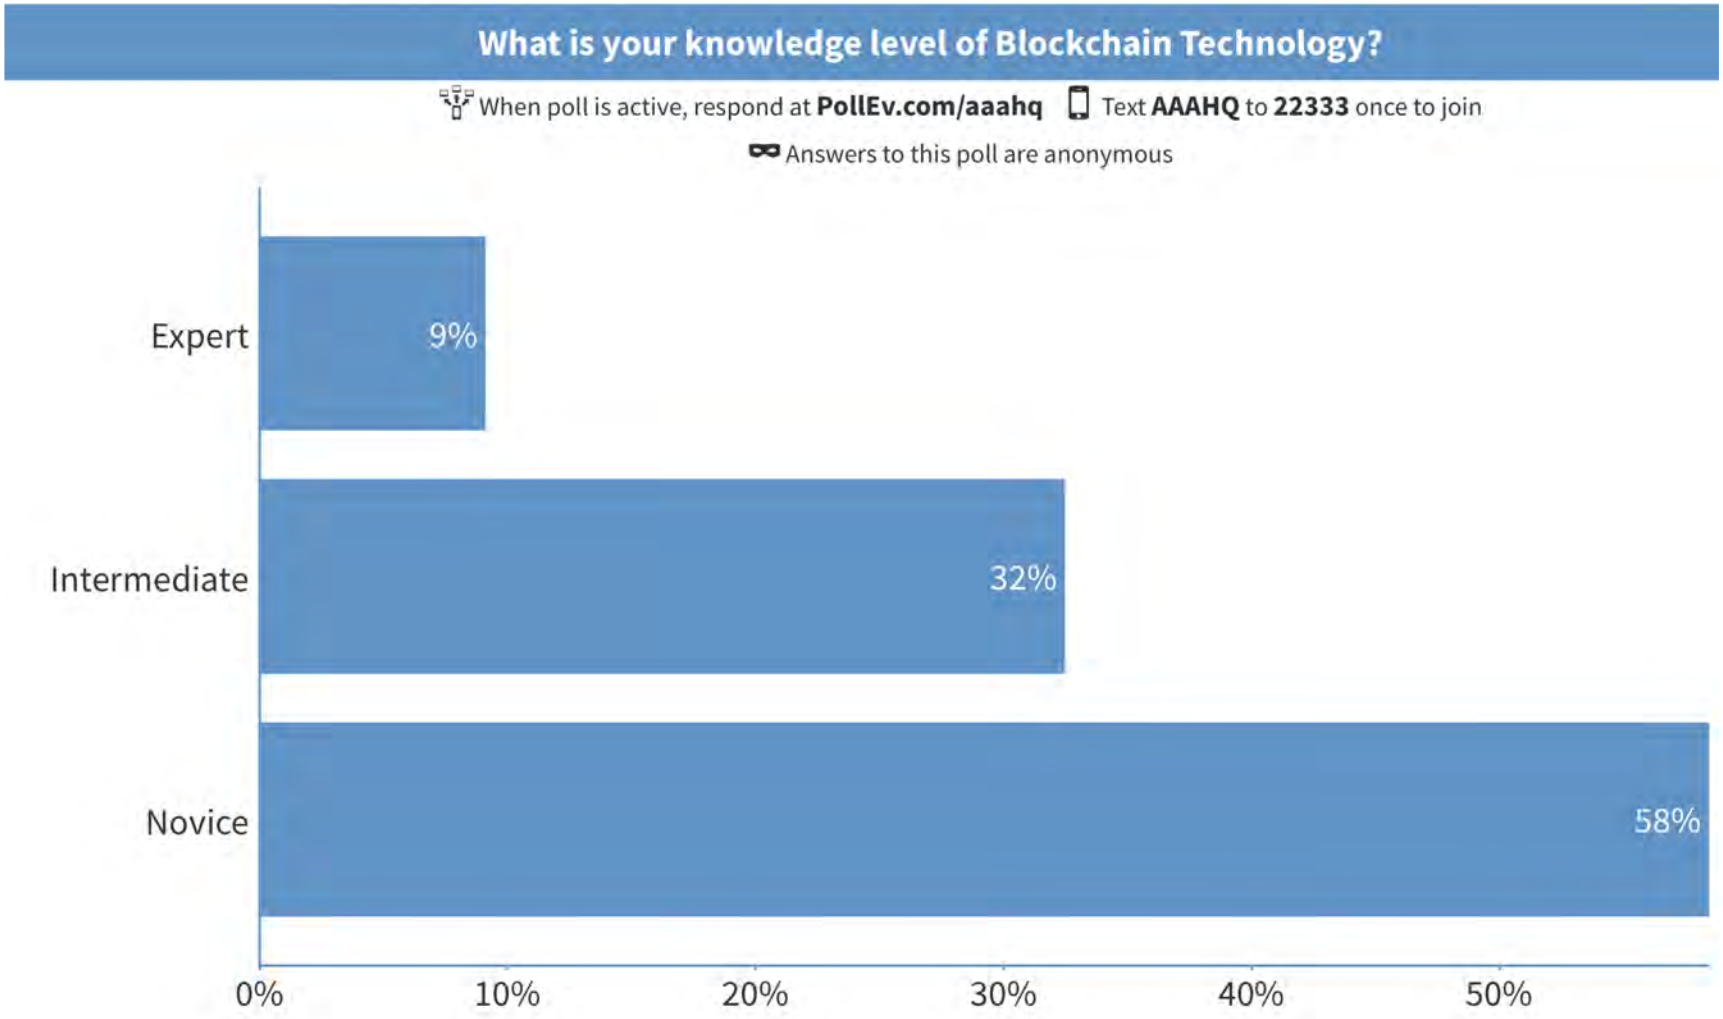
#aaaBC2018

American Accounting Association
Thought Leaders in Accounting

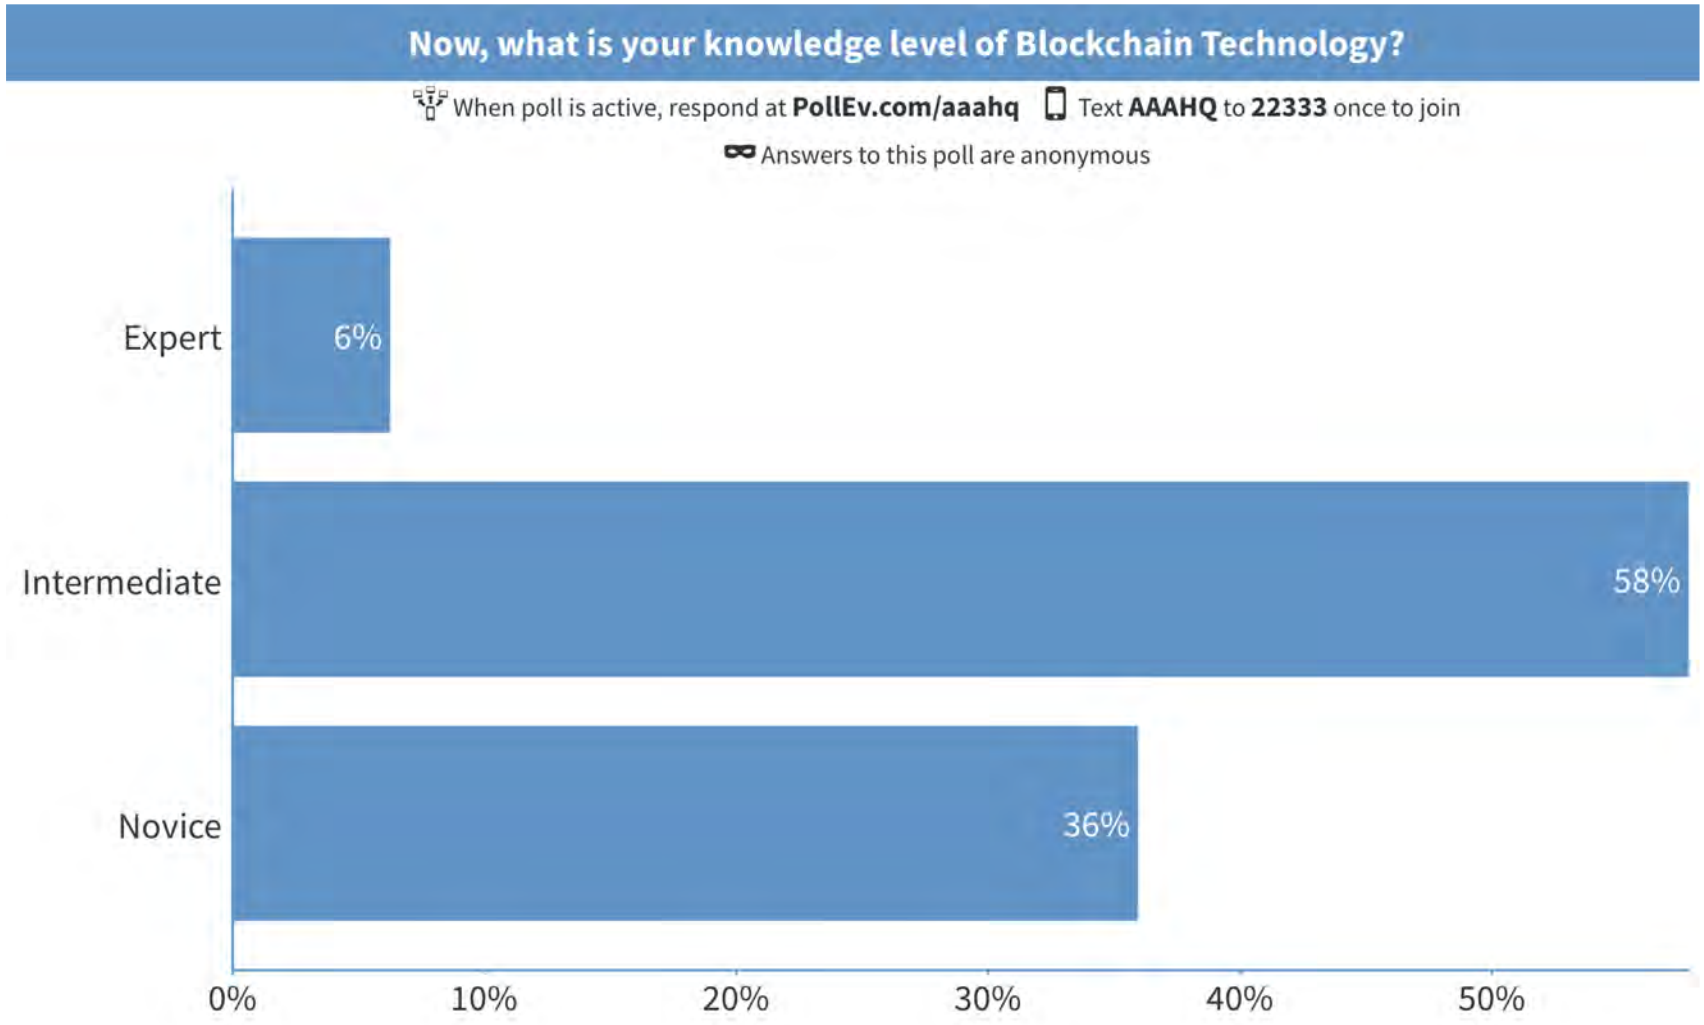
Centers for Advancing Accounting

What Did We Learn?
Looking Forward

Participant Poll at the Beginning of the Conference:



Participant Poll at the End of the Conference:



Want to learn more about this blockchain topic.

When poll is active, respond at PollEv.com/aaahq Text AAAHQ to 22333 once to join

"Cases to use in classroom"

"Hello. How's your day going?"

"Simulations that cross over courses - for example across tax and audit and financial accounting"

"have an ico company speak"

"Glossary"

"Course examples"

"Let's examine past applications in more detail"

"Successful Classroom Blockchain Integration"

"Need more on how block chain will work"

"Summarization of key concepts for students"

"Not just overview of issues/problem with block chain , but solutions"

"REAL hands on"

"What's going on this summer?"

"Blockchain Is not cryptocurrency. I want to hear more about Blockchain."

Want to learn more about this blockchain topic.

"Future use of multisigs in cooperatives and accounting ramifications of that"

"Who should be the regulator, do not assume current regulator is the "right" regulator"

"Business value propositions for permissioned blockchains"

"More use cases"

"Basics of Blockchain for students"

"Less crypto"

"Description of Adoption, Administration and change management of the blockchain"

"Cases to use in classroom"

"Practical cases for classroom"

Blockchain Technology: An Emerging Issues Forum

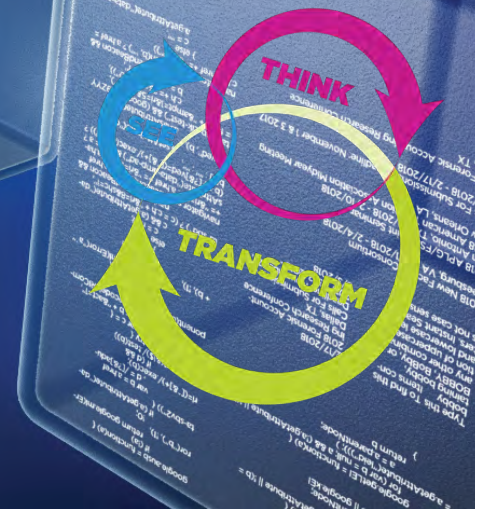
Friday September 14, 2018

#aaaBC2018

American Accounting Association
Thought Leaders in Accounting

Centers for Advancing Accounting

12:00 pm–1:00 pm
Grand Ballroom Foyer	Lunch
1:10 pm–3:00 pm
Workshop 3: A Choice of 3 Sessions
Salon EF	1: Blockchain and Healthcare Information Systems
Bayside II/III	2: Initial Coin Offering: An AIS Teaching Case and How and When to Best Integrate Blockchain into Accounting Curriculum: Survey Results
Salon ABCD	3: Explanation to Application—How to Incorporate Blockchain into the Classroom
3:10 pm–5:00 pm
Workshop 4: A Choice of 3 Sessions
Salon EF	1: Blockchain: What's Really Happening in the Business World and The Evolution of Accounting from Bullas to Blockchain Ledgers and Cryptocurrencies—A Historical Perspective
Bayside II/III	2: Blockchain Capability Decisions for Implementing Blockchain Using HyperLedger: Use Case of Food Supply Tracking for Safety Protections and Traceability
Salon ABCD	3: Blockchain and Accounting—Use Cases, Examples, and Applications for Practitioners and Educators



Intensive Data and Analytics II

Summer Workshop for Accounting Courses and Programs

SAVE THE DATE!

June 10–14, 2019

Hyatt Regency Orlando Airport Orlando, FL

Request for Proposals due January 30, 2019
Registration Opens: February 10, 2019
Registration $1,200 (<$28/CPE)
Hotel $149/night

NEW:

- D&A Case Competitions: Brief Cases and Robust Cases
- Emerging Tech Sessions-Blockchain

More of What you Loved:

- Hands-on Workshops
- How-to for Every Accounting Course
- Poster Sessions and Master Classes
- D&A Academic Programs and Resources