

The American Taxation Association (ATA) Section of the American Accounting Association (AAA) would like to recognize some of their most dedicated and long-serving members with Honorary Membership status to the ATA Section. To be eligible to enroll as an ATA Section Honorary Member for the 2014-15 membership year, a Section member must be

- retired, or retiring prior to September 1, 2014
- a member of the Section for 20 or more consecutive years
- a member in good standing of the AAA

Honorary Members of the ATA Section will receive complimentary ATA Section membership, paid for by the Section, for as long as the members continue to be members in good standing of the AAA. If you would like to become an Honorary ATA Section Member, and you meet the membership eligibility criteria, please follow the steps below and submit this form to the AAA office no later than Monday, March 31, 2014.

All 2014-15 Honorary Membership Enrollment forms received after March 31, 2014 will not be put into effect until the 2015-16 membership year.
