Call for Papers

The 2007 annual symposium of The International Journal of Accounting will be held in Honolulu, Oahu, Hawai`i on June 7-9, 2007. The theme of the 2007 symposium is "Measurement, Disclosure and Governance." Papers in all areas of international accounting, taxation, auditing, and ethics are welcome. Authors are invited to submit research papers for presentation. Submitted papers will be anonymously reviewed. The Program Committee will select papers for presentation based on the comments of the reviewers, quality of the work and potential contribution to the literature. There is limited space for other participants who would like to attend.

The registration fee of $300.00 will cover copies of the conference materials and meals. Registration fees are waived for authors, co-authors, and discussants appearing on the program. A stipend of up to US$1,600.00 to cover the travel and lodging cost will be provided for one author for each accepted paper and for each discussant. Accepted papers will be published in The International Journal of Accounting, a publication of Elsevier, after satisfying the refereeing process. The deadline for submission is January 31, 2007. Papers are to be submitted in an electronic form to ciera@uiuc.edu

The symposium is co-sponsored by the School of Accountancy and the Center for International Business Education and Research in the College of Business Administration at the University of Hawai`i at Mānoa (www.cba.hawaii.edu), the Zimmerman Center of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and Elsevier, the publisher of the Journal. The symposium will be held at the East-West Center on the campus of the University. A special feature of the symposium will be a guided visit to Shangri La, the Honolulu home of Doris Duke. Built in 1937, Shangri La houses an impressive collection of Islamic art and is considered one of Hawai`i's most architecturally significant homes (www.shangrilahawaii.org).
