

CALL FOR PAPERS
16th Annual Mid-Year Conference and 6th Annual Doctoral/New Faculty Consortium of the International Accounting Section of the American Accounting Association

in collaboration with the International Association for Accounting Education and Research

January 28-30, 2010, Palm Springs, California

Support Provided by San Diego State University's Charles W. Lamden School of Accountancy

Funding Provided by the KPMG Foundation

We are pleased to announce that the 2010 Midyear Meeting of the International Accounting Section (IAS) will be held in Palm Springs, CA at the Hilton Palm Springs, 400 East Tahquitz Canyon Way, Palm Springs, California 92262; Phone: 1-760-320-6868 or 1-800-HILTONS.

The conference will begin Thursday afternoon, January 28, at 4:00 pm with an IFRS CPE workshop featuring Mary Barth and Katherine Schipper. The conference will continue with plenary sessions, panels, concurrent sessions, dialog sessions, poster sessions and other events through Saturday afternoon. There will be an early bird reception Thursday evening, a reception will be held on Friday night, and a closing reception will be held on Saturday evening.

The 4th Annual Doctoral/New Faculty Consortium will be held on Thursday, January 28.

Papers, cases, or panel discussions on any area of international accounting are welcome. A special effort will be made to provide opportunities for doctoral students and assistant professors. As a result, the Section strongly encourages submissions that have been authored (or co-authored) and will be presented by assistant professors or doctoral students. To indicate that a submission meets this criterion, please include an asterisk (*) at the beginning of the title of the paper.

Authors may request a “fast-track” review for publication in one of the following journals:

- Journal of International Accounting Research (JIAR),
- Journal of International Financial Management and Accounting (JIFMA),
- Accounting Education: An International Journal.

To request fast track review, please check the appropriate box (you can make only one choice per submission) on your submission form.

The Fast Track review is a quick but incomplete review of a paper by the editorial staff as to a paper's suitability and potential for publication. All JIAR submissions must go through the full editorial review process. To request fast track review, please check the appropriate box on your submission form.

The deadline for submission for all papers, cases, and panels is Tuesday, October 13, 2009. All submissions must be in English. Author(s) will be notified of conference acceptance/rejection by November 16, 2009. Authors of accepted papers agree they will attend and register for the meeting which requires paying the appropriate meeting registration fee.

All submissions must be submitted via e-mail in Word format and must include the following:

- Submission form (below)
- Title and abstract page with a 150-word (maximum) abstract, author name(s), affiliations for all authors, and contact information (email and postal addresses and voice and fax numbers)
- Full text that does not identify the author(s)

Papers should not be sent by fax or regular mail.

A blind review process will be used in selecting research papers to be presented at concurrent sessions during the conference.
