ABOUT THE CENTER FOR CORPORATE REPORTING & GOVERNANCE:

The Center for Corporate Reporting & Governance (CCRG) at the Steven G. Mihaylo College of Business & Economics at California State University, Fullerton was created in the wake of Enron and other high profile corporate scandals and the subsequent passage of the landmark Sarbanes-Oxley Act to address the issues facing businesses and auditors in today's changing financial environment. The CCRG's most recent conference, "Seventh Annual SEC Financial Reporting Conference" held September 19, 2008, drew over 450 participants and featured a wide variety of speakers, including SEC, FASB, and PCAOB officials, corporate executives, board and audit committee members, and other financial accounting experts.

CPE INFORMATION:

CPE credit will be granted.
