

CHICAGO'S BEST BLUES

BLUE CHICAGO

536 N. Clark St. & 736 N. Clark St.
312-670-2473

Located in the trendy River North district, these nearby blues clubs are within walking distance of the hotel. Both feature local jazz greats such as Willie Kent and the Gents, Johnny B. Moore, and Miss Bonnie Lee, and are perfect for a quick blues fix.

BLUES

2519 N. Halsted St.
773-528-1012

Since 1979, Blues has been the quintessential Northside blues club, featuring Chicago greats such as Otis Clay and Eddy Clearwater. Blues aficionados will appreciate the traditional blues club atmosphere and rich musical history.

BUDDY GUY'S LEGENDS

754 S. Wabash Ave.
312-427-1190

Buddy Guy's is considered the Mecca of Chicago blues. Bringing in national talent, Legends has become a favorite for touring musicians, and quite famous for impromptu appearances from Buddy Guy himself. Only a short taxi ride away, Buddy Guy's Legends also has a limited menu for late night dining.

HOUSE OF BLUES

239 N. Dearborn Ave.
312-527-2583

House of Blues is the newcomer on the Chicago blues scene, with only a small percentage of actual blues music performed. In addition to the headlining rock and alternative bands, House of Blues is home to a restaurant and trendy gift shop.

KINGSTON MINES

2548 N. Halsted St.
773-477-4646

By far the most popular blues club, Kingston Mines has been dubbed the "granddaddy" of the Chicago blues scene and features live music on two stages every night. Located in the heart of the bar laden Lincoln Park area, Kingston Mines is a fifteen minute taxi ride from the hotel.
