

Concurrent Panel Sessions 3D – Teaching and Curriculum

The Future Role of Two-Year colleges in Accounting Education

Panelist:

Thomas Calderon, University of Akron
Christopher DeJohn, Editor, Wiley & Sons
Bill Harvey, Henry Ford Community College
Gail Hoover, Rockhurst University

This session will discuss the role of two year and small colleges in accounting education. Specific topics will include the changing content of two year programs, relationships and partnerships with four year institutions, transfer credit issues, and factors that will help and hinder these programs in the future.