Journal of Information Systems Best Paper Award

The Journal of Information Systems (JIS) Best Paper Award has been established by the AIS Section to recognize annually a paper published in JIS with the greatest impact or potential impact on accounting information systems research.

This award provides the winner(s) with not only recognition for producing high quality AIS research, but also a cash prize for the author(s). JIS papers appearing in the 2016, 2017, and 2018 issues are eligible for the award.

Please consider nominating an article by Wednesday, May 1, 2019. Nominations for the award will be accepted from members of the AIS Section. Self-nominations are welcomed and encouraged. Nominations should include a brief statement (no more than 2-3 paragraphs) explaining why the paper should be considered for the award and should be sent to Dr. Jeffrey Pickerd (jspicker@olemiss.edu)
