Auditing Section
American Accounting Association

Contents of
Auditing - A Journal of Practice & Theory
Spring, 1995 --- Volume 14 - Number 1

MAIN ARTICLES

- Direct Solicitation and Large Audit Firm Dominance in the Audit Market, Paul K. Chaney, Debra C. Jeter, and Pamela Erickson Shaw, pp. 17-34
- Strategies of Auditors: Evaluation of Sample Results, Martha Krug Nelson, pp. 35-53
- Audit Reports for Companies in Financial Distress: Before and After SAS No. 59, K. Raghunandan and D. V. Rama, pp. 54-73
- Professionalism and Its Consequences: A Study of Internal Auditors, Lawrence P. Kalbers and Timothy J. Fogarty, pp. 74-89

PRACTICE NOTE

- Improving the Results of Second Request Confirmation Procedures, Richard G. File and Bart H. Ward, pp. 90-104

RESEARCH NOTES

- Criticisms of Auditors and the Association Between Earnings and Returns of Client Firms, Keith A. Moreland, pp. 105-123
- Municipal Audit Fees: Has Increased Competition Made A Difference?, George Sanders, Arthur Allen, and Leon Korte, pp. 124-132
- The Effects of Client Characteristics on Audit Scope, Judith C. Walo, pp. 115-124
- An Analysis of Form 8-K Disclosures of Auditor Changes by Firms Approaching Bankruptcy, Kenneth B. Schwartz and Billy S. Soo, pp. 125-136

Return to Journals and Newsletters or Auditing Section Home Page

E-mail The Webmaster

October 23, 1998