

American Accounting Association*THE AUDITING SECTION

Mission Membership Meetings Publications Education Research Practice [Officers
Committees](#) Home

The ASB Clarity Project

The Auditing Section is pleased to provide another in its series of complimentary CPE Webinars, Friday, June 10, 2011. The program is entitled "The ASB Clarity Project: Historical Perspective, Clarity Conventions, and the coming Adoption." This webinar will be presented by three individuals and will be hosted by the Wiley Faculty Network (John Wiley and Sons, Inc.). The program is free to Auditing Section members and qualifies for 1.0 hours of CPE credit (Accounting and Auditing or Fraud).

Presenters: Mark H. Taylor is Professor at Case Western University and is currently a member of the AICPA Auditing Standards Board. Darrel Schubert is Partner in the Professional Practice Group of Ernst & Young's National Office and currently serves as the Chair of the Auditing Standards Board. Ahava Goldman is Senior Technical Manager at the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants focusing on ASB activities.

Calendar Entry:

Day: Friday
Date: June 10, 2011
Time: 2:00 - 3:00 PM (EDT)

How to Register: Click Here and complete the form to register for the program. Prior to June 10, 2011, participants will receive a follow-up email from the Wiley Faculty Network. The email will include login information for the Friday, June 10, 2011 CPE webinar program.

Need Help or Have Questions about the Program: Please contact Rick Lillie, Chair of the CPE Committee, at rlillie@csusb.edu or (909) 537-5726.