

Preparing for the Interview Process

Sponsored by:

American Accounting Association

Description: This Workshop is for Annual Meeting registrants interested in learning or reviewing valuable skills while going through the job-seeking process. This Workshop will help provide a positive direction for your job search launch, whether you are new to the job market or transitioning in your career. Our panel of scholars will discuss what makes a successful candidate, how to stand out in the crowd, and provide insight on highlighting critical points within your Curriculum Vitae.

Workshop Panel:

Nancy Uddin – Monmouth University

Nancy Uddin is an Associate Professor of Accounting at Monmouth University, Leon Hess Business School. Nancy will become the Department Chair beginning July 2021, Chair 2014-2017 previously. She is a member of the New Faculty Search and Tenure and Promotion Committees. Nancy is a Past President of the Strategic and Emerging Technology Section and the Mid-Atlantic Region of the American Accounting Association. Her areas of expertise include auditing, accounting information systems, and financial accounting.

Linda A Myers – The University of Tennessee, Knoxville

Linda A. Myers is a Distinguished Professor of Accounting and holder of the Haslam Chair of Business in the Haslam College of Business at The University of Tennessee, Knoxville (UTK). She graduated from the University of Michigan in 2001 and since that time, has served as the Recruiting Committee Chair at UTK and at the University of Arkansas, as well as a Recruiting Committee Member at Texas A&M University and at the University of Illinois. She currently teaches Ph.D. seminars in accounting and serves as Director of the Ph.D. Program in Accounting at UTK.

Christina R Ruiz – University of Indiana, Bloomington

Christina R Ruiz will be starting her career as an Assistant Professor at Indiana University in Bloomington, Fall 2021. She is finishing her PhD at Arizona State University in 2021. Christina recently participated in the 2020 Accounting PhD Rookie Recruiting and Research Camp. Her research interests include corporate political activity, corporate taxation, and the debt markets.

Date/Time: Friday, July 29. 10:00 am – 12:00 pm EDT

Field of Study: Personal Development

Program Level: Basic

Method of Delivery: Group — Live

Intended Audience: All Annual Meeting registrants interested in learning or reviewing skills that are helpful during the job seeking process.

Format/Structure: Panel presentation and open discussion

Learning Objective: Participants will be able to: (1) Interview with potential employers with greater confidence (2) Be better informed on what employers are looking for in candidates (3) Understand the steps in the hiring and interview processes.

Prerequisites: None

Advanced Preparation Required: None