Audit Committee Charge, Responsibilities

Charge

- The function of the Audit Committee is oversight. It is the AAA management's responsibility to maintain appropriate systems for accounting and internal control including internal control over financial reporting, and the Auditor's responsibility to plan and carry out the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. The Auditor is ultimately responsible to the Board of Directors and the Audit Committee, as representatives of AAA's stakeholders.
- The Audit Committee Charter, details the Audit Committee's purposes, duties and powers.

Responsibilities

- Audit Committee responsibilities involve the selection and interaction with the independent auditor, consideration of the effect on the AAA financial statements of any changes in accounting principles, review of the financial and compliance review process, review of the ethical and legal compliance processes, and administration of the AAA's whistle blower policy. To access definitions of these responsibilities, see the Audit Committee Charter.
- If the Chair has any questions about the charge or responsibilities of this committee, s/he should contact the Chief Executive Officer, the President, or the committee's Board of Directors Liaison.
- The Chair must submit at least one report per year to the Board of Directors. This report should include accomplishments and suggested modifications and should be sent to the AAA President, the committee's Board of Directors Liaison, and Governance Manager, Barbara Gutierrez (barbara.gutierrez@aaahq.org).

Mauldin & Jenkins, CPAs & Advisors - Bradenton, FL November 7, 2025

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of American Accounting Association and Subsidiary (the “Association”) (a nonprofit organization), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of May 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Association as of May 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
