

Niloufar K. Molavi
US ESG Tax Leader & Global Energy Leader

Niloufar Molavi leads PwC's US ESG Tax practice. She also leads PwC's Global Energy practice comprised of over 6000 professionals serving Global energy clients and is responsible for all client services.

From 2011 to 2016 she served as the Greater Houston Market Managing Partner for the geographic markets of Houston, Tulsa, Oklahoma City and New Orleans. From 2009 to 2011 she served on PwC's leadership team as the firm's Chief Diversity Officer. In that role she oversaw the firm's diversity strategy and all of its related programs and initiatives. With 28 years of tax experience with PwC, Niloufar has served a wide range of energy companies both in the U.S. and abroad, advising clients on international and U.S. tax structuring, mergers, acquisitions and potential public offerings.

Niloufar began her career with PwC in 1991 and was promoted to partner in 2001. She joined the firm's U.S. Leadership team in 2009. She earned her degree in Accounting as well as a Masters in Professional Accounting with a concentration in Taxation from the University of Texas at Austin. She currently serves on the Advisory Board of the McCombs School of Business and Accounting Advisory Council at the University of Texas. She serves the non-profit boards of Dress for Success Houston, Central Houston and Junior Achievement of the Southwest and JA USA. She is a licensed CPA in Texas and resides in Houston with her husband and two children.